

APPETITT PUPPY

Complete wet food for puppies up to 1 year of age.

Appetitt Puppy wet food meets the nutritional requirements of puppies with a high growth rate up to 1 year of age. The high content of energy and nutrients also makes Appetitt Puppy suitable for female dogs during gestation and lactation.

This wet feed is highly palatable and contains no grain raw materials, using only animal protein sources. The feed has a high content of animal protein (82% from chicken, swine and beef), as well as potato, carrot, and pea fiber.

The product contains no artificial preservatives, sugar, artificial flavors, or colors. Appetitt Puppy wet food has a balanced vitamin and mineral content, making it a complete food for puppies. It can also be used in combination with Appetitt puppy dry dog food.
